

Website Privacy Policy

PARDA Federal Credit Union respects the personal and financial privacy of its members. We are committed to protect the information within our website with the same confidentiality standards utilized throughout PARDA Federal Credit Union business operations.

Any information we collect may be used for internal reporting of website statistics and to respond to service of your account, product needs, and to provide you with information about other products and services.

Accurate Information Maintenance

Our goal is make sure the information we maintain about our members is accurate, current, and complete, and to respond to any requests to correct inaccurate information in a timely manner.

Limiting Employee Access to Information

PARDA Federal Credit Union maintains industry information standards and procedures that include physical and electronic safeguards, restricting access to that information on a need-to-know basis, and training employees on the importance of information security.

Cookies

Cookies are files placed within your browser on your computer's hard drive by a website server. PARDA Federal Credit Union does not use the "cookie" feature within its website.

Links

While exploring the products and services offered through PARDA Federal Credit Union and our website, please be aware that third party partners may provide a link to access their website through PARDA's website. Please note: PARDA Federal Credit Union is not responsible for the content, security, or privacy policy of any third-party website. We encourage all users to read the privacy statement of all linked websites.

Children

Here at PARDA Federal Credit Union, we believe in and promote financial literacy for all ages through education and communication. The online inquiry is provided as an inquiry step into membership and is not an account opening tool. This feature is not designed or directed toward children under the age of 13. We request that these individuals do not provide personal information through the website. We do not knowingly collect information from children without parental or guardian consent. If you believe your child has provided personally identifiable information to us without your permission, please contact us.

e-Mail

PARDA Federal Credit Union requests that you do not send confidential information to us via e-Mail. e-Mail is not a secured environment, safe against interception. If your communication is sensitive, or includes personal information such as account numbers, card numbers, personal identification numbers, social security numbers or date of birth, you should call or use another secured method of communication.

PARDA Federal Credit Union provides a secure method of communication through the use of the Member Service Live Chat Link located at the bottom of our home page.
